Abbott Howard Hoffman
Security Matter - Anarchist

On September 9, 1969, an official of the Criminal Court of the City of New York, Part 2B, 100 Centre Street, New York, New York, advised a Special Agent (SA) of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) that Abbott Hoffman appeared with his attorney, Gerald Lefcourt, in Part 2B of the Criminal Court, Room 411, 100 Centre Street, New York, New York, on September 8, 1969, for trial in connection with his arrest at Columbia University, New York City, on April 30, 1968; by the New York City Police Department on charges of Criminal Trespassing and Resisting Arrest.

Based on a motion made by Hoffman's attorney for a delay, the case was continued by the court for December 8, 1969.

The March 1969, issue of "Rights", self-described as a publication of the National Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (NECLC), on page 12, reported that on February 1, (1969), the NECLC welcomed Gerald Lefcourt to its staff as Legislative Director.

A characterization of the NECLC is attached hereto.

NATIONAL EMERGENCY CIVIL LIBERTIES
COMMITTEE, Formerly Known As
Emergency Civil Liberties Committee

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications", revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., contains the following concerning the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee:

"Emergency Civil Liberties Committee

"1. 'The Emergency Civil Liberties Committee is an organization with headquarters in New York, whose avowed purpose is to abelish the House Committee on Un-American Activities and discredit the FBI. * * * The committee finds that the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, established in 1951, although representing itself as a non-Communist group, actually operates as a front for the Communist Party. It has repeatedly assisted, by means of funds and legal aid, Communists involved in Smith Act violations and similar legal proceedings. One of its chief activities has been and still is the dissemination of voluminous Communist propaganda material.'

'FRANK WILKINSON was called as a witness when he appeared in Atlanta as a representative of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee to propagandize against the Committee on Un-American Activities and to protest its hearings. In 1956 WILKINSON was identified as a Communist Party member by a former FBI undercover agent within the Party. Summoned at that time to answer the allegation, his reply to all questions was, "I am answering no questions of this committee." This also became his stock reply to questions

when he appeared during the Atlanta hearings. * * * WILKINSON has since been convicted of contempt of Congress and sentenced to one year in jail.'

'Disputing the non-Communist claim of the organization, the committee finds that a number of other individuals connected with the ECLC also have been identified under oath as Communists. * * *'

(Committee on Un-American Activities, Annual Report for 1958, House Report 187, March 9, 1959, pp. 34 and 35.)

"2. 'To defend the cases of Communist law-breakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the * * * Emergency Civil Liberties Committee. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these fronts offer a bulwark of protection.' (Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Handbook for Americans, S. Doc. 117, April 23, 1956, p. 91.)"

"The New York Times", a New York City daily newspaper, in its April 1, 1968, issue, page 13, contained an item captioned, "Draft Dissenters to Get More Help", which related that at a news conference held by the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (ECLC) on the previous day, it was announced that the organization was changing its name to the National Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (NECLC) "to reflect our determination to develop a vital national civil liberties organization in all 50 states as rapidly as possible."

NECLC is located at 25 East 26th Street, New York City.

[REDACTED] that after the press conference the subject entertained the underground press inside The Conspiracy Office and related that he was convinced that he would be convicted in Chicago and that he would probably be jailed during the appeal, should an appeal be granted. The subject appealed to the underground press to help him in any way possible and asked the press to encourage people to go to Chicago and "do their thing". The subject also stated he wanted the press to depict him as a "nice guy and harmless".

[REDACTED] the subject also stated he would like to see people set up "things" in Grant Park in Chicago, inasmuch as that location was close to the courthouse. He stated that the "Seed" publication would be used for publicity purposes and a possible communications center.

[REDACTED] that the subject also expressed a desire to secure a private dwelling in Chicago to use for The Conspiracy headquarters for organizational purposes.

The March, 1969 issue of "Rights", self-described as a publication of the NECLC, on page 12, reported that on February 1 (1969) the NECLC welcomed GERALD LEFCOURT to its staff as Legislative Director.

On June 24, 1969, at approximately 9:55 a.m., an SA of the FBI observed ABBOTT HOFFMAN and subsequently his attorney, GERALD LEFCOURT, enter Part 2B of the Criminal Court of the City of New York, Room 411, 100 Centre Street, New York City, where HOFFMAN was scheduled to appear before the court for trial in connection with his having been arrested by the New York City Police Department (NYCPD) on March 23, 1969, on charge of Illegal Possession of Weapons.

At 10:15 a.m. the SA of the FBI observed HOFFMAN and his attorney, GERALD LEFCOURT, leave the courtroom and proceed to the elevators of the building.

An official of the Criminal Court advised an SA of the FBI on June 24, 1969, that HOFFMAN's case had been continued by the court for September 4, 1969, in Part 1B1, based on a motion made by HOFFMAN's attorney to suppress the evidence (evidence illegally seized).

[REDACTED] the NYCPD advised an SA of the FBI that ABBOTT HOFFMAN did not appear in Part 1D1 of the Criminal Court of the City of New York, Room 415, 100 Centre Street, New York City, for trial on that date in connection with his having been arrested by the NYCPD on April 11, 1969, on charges of Disorderly Conduct, Resisting Arrest, Harassment, Obstructing Governmental Administration (Docket Number-B9547) and Felonious Assault (Docket Number-A5570).

They stated that a representative of the District Attorney's Office advised the court that HOFFMAN's attorney, GERALD LEFCOURT, had notified the District Attorney's Office that HOFFMAN would not be in court inasmuch as he had to appear in court in Chicago, Illinois, on this date.

They stated that Judge DONALD S. WEISS ordered the forfeiture of $2,500.00 bail and issued a bench warrant for HOFFMAN's arrest.

They stated that the representative of the District Attorney's Office requested a stay of the bench warrant but that Judge WEISS denied it.

They stated that in the event that HOFFMAN voluntarily surrenders or is arrested on the bench warrant, Judge WEISS set a new trial date for August 8, 1969.

On August 8, 1969, at approximately 9:50 a.m., an SA of the FBI observed ABBOTT HOFFMAN, and subsequently his attorney, GERALD LEFCOURT, enter Part 1D1 of the Criminal Court of the City of New York, Room 415, 100 Centre Street, New York City, where HOFFMAN was scheduled to appear before the court for a preliminary hearing in connection with his having been arrested by the NYCPD on April 11, 1969, on charges of Disorderly Conduct, Resisting Arrest, Harassment, Obstructing Governmental Administration (Docket Number B9547) and Felonious Assault (Docket Number A5570).

[REDACTED] advised an SA of the FBI on August 8, 1969, that due to a very large number of cases on the court calendar, ABBOTT HOFFMAN's case was not called until 2:40 p.m., on August 8, 1969, in Part 1D1 of the Criminal Court of the City of New York. The case was heard by Criminal Court Judge ARTHUR H. GOLDBERG, who ordered the Felonious Assault charge (a felony) reduced to Simple Assault (a misdemeanor). He also reduced bail on the assault charge from $2,000.00 to $1,000.00, while maintaining the $500.00 bail on the other charges. ABBOTT HOFFMAN pled not guilty to all of the charges and the case was adjourned to November 17, 1969, in Part 2B of the Criminal Court of the City of New York.

On September 4, 1969, at approximately 10:00 a.m., an SA of the FBI observed ABBOTT HOFFMAN and his attorney, GERALD LEFCOURT, enter Part 1B1 of the Criminal Court of the City of New York, Room 219, 100 Centre Street, New York City, where HOFFMAN was scheduled to appear before the court for a hearing based on a motion previously made by HOFFMAN's attorney to suppress the evidence (evidence illegally seized) in connection with his having been arrested by the NYCPD on March 23, 1969, on the charge of Illegal Possession of Weapons.

At 10:50 a.m., the SA of the FBI observed HOFFMAN and his attorney, GERALD LEFCOURT, leave the courtroom and proceed to the elevators of the building.

A review of the records of the Criminal Court of the City of New York, Part 1B1, Room 220, 100 Centre Street, New York City, on September 4, 1969, disclosed that Detective BARRY LEVINE, NYCPD, who arrested HOFFMAN on the aforementioned charge on March 23, 1969, was unable to be present in the court on September 4, 1969, and that Judge DANIEL S. WEISS adjourned the hearing until December 15, 1969, in Part 1B1 of the Criminal Court of New York City.

Based on a motion made by HOFFMAN's attorney for a delay, the case was continued by the court for December 8, 1969.

3. Arrests in Chicago, Illinois

On June 27, 1969, [REDACTED] Office of Clerk of the Court, First Municipal District, Bond Court, Branch Number 47, Chicago, Illinois, advised that his record reflected that on June 17, 1969, the subject was granted a new trial on charges of Possession of a Dangerous Weapon regarding his arrest on September 17, 1968, at O'Hare International Airport in Chicago, Illinois. The new date for the subject's trial was set as July 22, 1969, in the Mass Arrest Court of Judge KENNETH R. WENDT. [REDACTED] further advised that to the best of his knowledge the subject did not personally appear in court on June 17, 1969, but was represented by counsel.

"The New York Times", a daily New York City newspaper, in its June 19, 1969 issue on page 31, carried an article datelined "Chicago, June 18" and entitled "Hoffman Wins New Trial", which reported that the subject was granted a new trial on charges of Possessing a Dangerous Weapon in connection with his arrest on September 16, 1968, at O'Hare International Airport, Chicago. The article further reported that the defense argued that the weapon exhibited by the state was a broken pocket knife.

"The New York Times" in its July 23, 1969 issue on page 23, carried an article datelined "Chicago, July 22 (AP)" and entitled "Abbie Hoffman is Cleared in Unlawful Weapon Case", which stated in part as follows:

"A charge of unlawful use of a weapon placed Sept. 17 against Abbie Hoffman, the Youth International Party leader, was dismissed today by Circuit Court Judge Kenneth R. Wendt.

"Judge Wendt dropped the charge after the Cook County State's Attorney's office said it could not produce the switchblade knife that the police said Mr. Hoffman carried when they arrested him at O'Hare International Airport."

The "Chicago Sun Times", a daily newspaper published in Chicago, Illinois, in its issue of July 23, 1969, contained an article on page 32, headlined: "Drop 1 of 2 Charges on Yippie". The article stated in part as follows:

"A charge of unlawful use of a weapon against Yippie leader Abbie Hoffman, 31, was dropped Tuesday. Mass Arrest Court Judge Kenneth R. Wendt said there was a question whether the knife police said Hoffman carried with him when he was arrested Sept. 17 (1968) was lethal.

"Asst. Corporation Counsel Richard J. Elrod said, 'It's merely a question of legal technicalities.' The knife that Hoffman had with him was not a switchblade, as had been reported. It was rather a large folding knife - somewhat larger than an ordinary pocket knife.

"Hoffman is also being charged with conspiring to use interstate commerce with the intent to incite acts of violence and we feel that is sufficient. We simply decided not to press the issue of the concealed weapons charge," Elrod said."

The article also stated that HOFFMAN was one of a group of New Yorkers who formed the Youth International Party, and that he was one of eight demonstrators indicted by a Federal Grand Jury on criminal charges arising from disturbances during the Democratic Convention in Chicago, in August, 1968.

The "Chicago Daily News", a daily newspaper published in Chicago, Illinois, in its issue of July 23, 1969, contained an article on page 26, headlined: "Yippie Leader Cleared of Knife Charge". This article stated in part as follows:

"Charges of unlawful use of a weapon against Yippie leader Abbie Hoffman were dropped when city prosecutors failed to produce the switchblade knife police said they had found on Hoffman at O'Hare Airport last Sept. 17. Mass Arrest Court Judge Kenneth R. Wendt dropped the charges Tuesday after the city produced only a pocketknife with a 4-inch blade. Wendt said the knife apparently had been improperly described in the warrant against Hoffman. He (Hoffman) did not appear in court Tuesday."

4. Arrests in Washington, D.C.

"The Evening Star" in its July 30, 1969 issue on page B-1, carried an article entitled "Sues City, Officials; Yippie Says He Got Hepatitis in D.C. Jail", which stated as follows:

"Abbie Hoffman of the Youth International Party (Yippie) has filed a suit in U.S. District Court here against federal and District officials, claiming he contracted hepatitis while detained at the D.C. Jail last year.

"Hoffman, 31, of New York, said he got the disease when a blood sample was taken from him without his approval by persons at the jail. The suit claimed the needle or vial utilized was 'infected and caused' him 'to contract hepatitis!..

"He asked $100,000 damages from the District government and Kenneth L. Hardy, director of the D.C. Department of Corrections; Charles M. Rodgers, superintendent of the jail, and an unidentified person who actually took the blood sample.

"The suit also asked $100,000 from Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell and the federal government, claiming Mitchell and the government were 'negligent in supervising' the jail.

"Hoffman also seeks $100,000 alleging he was deprived of his rights and privileges guaranteed by the Constitution.

"He was arrested Oct. 3 on the charge of desecrating a United States flag and was later sentenced to $100 fine or 30 days in jail, which he has appealed.

"The arrest occurred as he was on his way to the Capitol to testify before the House committee investigating incidents at the Democratic convention last summer in Chicago. Police claimed he was wearing a shirt which appeared to be made from a U.S. flag."

"The New York Times" in its August 1, 1969 issue on page 19, carried an article datelined "Washington, July 31 (AP)" and entitled "Yippie Leader Files Suit; Says He Became Ill in Jail", which stated as follows:

"Abbie Hoffman, Youth International party (Yippie) leader and antiwar demonstrator, has filed a $300,000 damage action charging he contracted hepatitis while in a District of Columbia jail last October.

"Mr. Hoffman, 33 years old, contends that either the needle or the vial used in a blood test carried germs that caused an infection. He says he suffered permanent physical injury.

NY 100-161445

"Named defendants were the District of Columbia; the Federal Government; Kenneth L. Hardy, director of the District's Department of Corrections, and Charles Rodgers, superintendent of the District jail.

"Mr. Hoffman was jailed on a charge of desecrating the American flag during a demonstration. He was convicted but is free pending appeal."

The records of the District of Columbia Court of Appeals, Washington, D.C., as reviewed by an SA of the FBI on August 15, 1969, disclosed that on August 14, 1969, the District of Columbia Court of Appeals affirmed the judgment rendered by Judge ANDREW J. HOWARD, Jr., of the District of Columbia Court of General Sessions convicting the subject of defiling the American flag by wearing a shirt resembling the flag and sentencing him to pay a fine of $100.00 or serve 30 days in jail on November 20, 1968.

"The Evening Star" in its issue of August 14, 1969, on page B-1, carried an article entitled "Yippie Appeal Is Rejected in U.S. Flag Case", which stated as follows:

"The conviction of Yippie leader Abbie Hoffman for desecrating the American flag last fall - was upheld today by the D.C. Court of Appeals. Hoffman was arrested Oct. 3 when he wore a shirt resembling the flag to a congressional hearing.

"The court ruled that Hoffman's conduct amounted to 'defiling' the flag in violation of a new federal law that makes such activity a crime.

"Speaking for a three-judge panel, Chief Judge Andrew M. Hood rejected the contention of Hoffman's attorney, Gerald B. Lefcourt, that the law is unconstitutional.

"'Contemptuous Conduct' Cited

"'Surely the government has a substantial, genuine and important interest in protecting the flag from public desecration by contemptuous conduct,' Hood wrote in a five-page opinion.

"'We find the statute to be a reasonable regulation . . . and it does not unnecessarily impinge on a citizen's right to protest.'

"Calling the ruling 'really shocking,' Lefcourt said the case would be taken to the U.S. Court of Appeals and, if it isn't overturned there, to the Supreme Court.

"Hoffman, 31, was arrested when he appeared to testify on his protest activities at the 1968 Democratic National Convention.

"Convicted Nov. 20

"On Nov. 20, the late Judge Andrew J. Howard Jr. of the Court of General Sessions found Hoffman guilty and sentenced him to 30 days in jail or a $100 fine.

"Before the D.C. Appeals Court, Lefcourt argued that desecrating the American flag is 'classic protest' and should be legally permitted as free speech. Hoffman's actions were 'symbolic speech,' he said.

"'We disagree,' Hood said in the opinion. 'The First Amendment protects freedom of speech and not freedom of conduct.'"

[REDACTED]

* [REDACTED] advised SA [REDACTED] that on April 30, 1969, the subject made a public speaking appearance at Festival Hall, North Dakota State University, Fargo, North Dakota.

HOFFMAN had two films which were projected prior to his verbal remarks. One film dealt with the Black Panthers and one dealt with the civil disturbances which occurred in Chicago, Illinois, during the 1968, DNC. The film pertaining to the Chicago disturbances ridiculed the Chicago police by interjecting short sequences of old movies of the Keystone Cops, and old war movies into filmed accounts of alleged beatings administered by Chicago police on the demonstrators.

"Have you got the catalogue? Oh, you got it.
What's your name? Butch? You know Butch. Butch has the catalogue. You know this film and the next one, and there are about fifty other films - they're groups in San Francisco, Atlanta, New York's the largest, I guess, Chicago's startin' up - of filmmakers who make these films and send them around to schools and show them on the streets, communities and stuff like that. Next one won the academy award for most political relevance by SDS. It was close. There was another film called Cultural Imperialism in Antarctica, that only cost six bucks.
This one cost twelve, so I think that's why we won. Twelve bucks - four of us made it. Ed Sanders, who was - I heard he was here last year - he did the soundtrack. Phil Oakes NK and some other Yippies just made up a song and stuck one in, and G. W. Griffith helped out - you'll see him in there.
It was put together by stolen footage and a little extra shooting, and it was made for twelve dollars by four guys who like don't know how to make a film. It's a groovy kind of way to meditate - make a movie. Try it, it's easy. Mayor Daley, I forgot him. Oh, I gotta show you my shirt. I gave this cop some hash and...I wear it to trials and arraignments.
I wear it to mod squad. Yippie. Ready, OK, here's Yippie.
Oh, this was made for TV, so the words have been changed to protect the innocent.

Oh, my old man said at an early age, said free means you don't pay. When can I go to the supermarket and buy what I want with my good looks? That's what Ginsberg said. Beautiful cat. That's the program for the future, everything free. Well, how we gonna do it. Well, you like, I don't know how it is with wheat out here, but like with corn, about ten years ago it took 480 man hours to process an acre of corn. Today it takes 48; in five years it'll take four, and in ten years it will take four minutes. We'll have corn, we'll have popcorn, we'll have everything; caramel corn, any kind you want, free. Why not?

"We put out a booklet called, F... the System, in New York. Fifteen thousand free copies. Thirty-two pages, right there, everything, how to get it free. Free credit cards, calls, how to do it, free laundromats, how to work that thing on the vending machines, how to get on the subway free, where to get free fish, free food, free drugs, free abortions, everything, right there. Free. We have a free store down there. We give out things free. You just keep bringing it down. We just keep passing it out, free. Who's in charge? You're in charge. Nobody's gotta be in charge. It's all free. I know, but work's a heavy trip cause, well, I guess it started with like way back. The time of the Roman Empire. There was this guy, Christ, this groovy hippie, long hair, beatnik, out there doing his thing, driving money changers from the temple. Wow, that's terrible. That's heavy stuff. Slave rebellion. We'll call it religion, OK. That's sneaky. That's really good. Never tell them what you're doing. Religion, yea, OK, so he got his thing, pigs nailed him up. They were poured out in the catacombs, just like the hippies going out in the communes. Later I'll tell you how to fly in an airplane free. Now to dig on. So then came the disciples, see, and they're feeling kinda guilty, they said, hey, he was really serious, man, did you see what he did; did you see the way he spent his Easter vacation? He was very serious. If we gotta be that serious, what are we gonna do? They were all sitting around there, Mark and John and all these guys, and John says, I got an idea, why don't we dress in black - that's serious. They say, OK, sounds good. And Paul, Paul is a real clever

"guy, he said, why don't we give up f...? Holy s... Mark was kinda h..., he said, well, I mean, I heard that Sermon on the Mount; he didn't say that. No, they don't really think we're serious, we gotta f... it. OK, they did it for two thousand years. Do you know Saint Augustine? He came up with this thing. OS, called original sin; said everybody got it. Go out and feel guilty, be yourself, yea, I'ms a guilty man, I did it, I did it, I did it. So they buried him, he's buried in about six different countries in Europe. I was over there and saw him all over the place. They love him. Original sin. Wow, that'll sell.

"They're only doing about two hundred thousand witches, and then along came the Industrial Revolution, and there were all these bankers and guys owned big industries and things, called Capitalism, and they said, Hey, there's only one thing wrong here, like, niggers don't wanna keep working in the fields, and like, these twelve-year-old kids don't wanna work twenty hours a day. They aren't doing too good. They gotta help us out, so they went up to Switzerland and they see this guy in a funny little hat and funny shoes walking around. John Calvin was his name. He's very serious, and they say, hey man, you gotta help us out. He says, yea, I got a good thing, it's called Protestantism. Tell them they don't work, they ain't gonna get up there. Yea, postpone their pleasure, keep their money in the bank, keep their nose clean, up with nobility, degrees, see the Army cut their hair, take a bath, and they'll work cause they wanna go to heaven. They said that's groovy, that'll keep them in there. So they had a little marriage, that value system lent itself quite well to Capitalism. They, they had that old concept between clean work and dirty work. You don't wanna do dirty work. Whose gonna pick up the garbage? I'm not; I wanna be an insurance salesman. That's clean work. Keep your fingers clean. Mow the lawn. Drug salesman. I was a drug salesman. Not that kind. You don't sell that kind, you give it away. I worked for this company, Westwood Pharmaceutical. I don't know if you know any of their products - they make something for acne, you know, and stuff for bad breath. I never met

"anybody with bad breath, but I like see a whole lot of stuff being sold about halitosis is worse than cancer. So I was, my job was to go around and give doctors five hundred dollars to write a report about how some of this drugs were, see, and then we'd take that report and send it back to the home office, xerox it, put it in some fancy academic journal, and then take the journal around and show it to all the other doctors, tell them how good it was, see? Then they'd tell the patient to go out and get it. My head was like really spinning, wow. And I said, I started a question, like, what's the meaning of life: what am I doing here; does this stuff work. So who do I ask. I asked the ministers. I asked the priests - hey, is this any good? What's the meaning of life? They said go see Dalai Lama. Well, he was too far, so I asked my boss, a regional sales manager. I said, hey boss, I'm gonna ask you something. This s... any good? He said, it won't kill you. It won't kill you. It was killing me even though I had it down to a science. I worked four hours a day for fifteen thousand dollars. Nice home in the suburbs. Four hours selling my soul. Westwood Pharmaceutical. I said stick it. Let 'em have acne. It was fun anyway. You get really stoned doing that in the mirror, huh? The best way is to have somebody else do it for ya. Then it's like interactive. Let 'em have their acne, I said, and I headed for the lower east side. Twenty-two dollars a month rent. Nobody spoke English in the whole building. It was a Spanish building. Garbage all over the place. Puerto Rican families come out at night and pick through the garbage downstairs to get something to eat. Eat. How much are they paying these farmers out herenow to grow wheat? They oughta send some down. We'll come u and get it. Wheat, give it away free. That ain't charity - we ain't up to charity. Charity's a bum trip. That's like Pat Nixon, you know, going up to St. Patrick's Cathedral saying, here's a bag of sugar. Send it to Biafra. Isn't that cute? Well. Eleven truckloads of food; we drove it into Newark, right during the riots. And we give it to people. It's in cans, and we say you don't wanna eat it, throw it. No strings attached. Do anything they want with it.

"Well, see it's that vision. It's that vision that brought us to Chicago, so we can have a festival of life. Life, joy, that French cat over there in France, just read his book, he said revolution will be built on joy, not on sacrifice. Well, what's joy? Fighting for what you believe in is joyous. September 24, 1969, biggest circus in the world opens in Chicago. Trial of the conspiracy. We applied for permits to sleep in Lincoln Park, eight of us, since they were so nice to us the last time, we had such a good time, we're going back. Don't come, don't come, don't come on September 24, 1969, to Chicago, Lincoln Park. Do not come. Did you get that, FBI? Don't come. If I'da said do, I'd get another ten years. Well, guess then there's school, right? Well, they're all right-nursery schools, they give ya pabulum, lousy food and blocks to play with and call it education. Hey, look at Cuba down there. You know I saw this special on TV a couple weeks ago and they said, let's show the kids studying in class, world revolution, Socialism, and all this. Brainwashing. Heavy. Brainwashing, huh. Not like here, we have free education. Everything's free. Open discussion of ideas. That's baloney, like, take any course. Like mathematics, OK. When I was a young kid they said Farmer Jones had four apples, he brought them into town to sell them for two cents each. How much profit did he make? Oh, that don't count. That's not brainwashing, right? Math class, why don't you go in there and ask them, how many atrocities did the U.S. commit today in Vietnam? What was the number? All right. This is a math class. Take that up in Civics. That's math. Walter Cronkite's adding them up. How many troops desert? Last year, fifty-two thousand troops deserted. Another fifty thousand draft dodgers. That's a hell of an Army. Support our boys in Canada. Two weeks ago, eighty soldiers in Fort Carson in Colorado took their M16's and went over the wall, and they're up in the Rocky Mountains. Government's like afraid to go after them. It would be a heavy trip in the Rocky Mountains. They're not in to destroying the ecology of the land. Defoliation, huh?

It's all, get out of the street, there's violence, in the streets and all the w.... in the gutter and p.... and get out of the streets. Stay indoors. Go to drive-in mortuaries and drive-in ice cream parlors and drive-in movies and drive-in schools, drive-in golf courses, and stay out of the streets. We said, s...., we're going out in the streets.

"And so weird is school, huh? Spring offensive; Harvard, Columbia, and San Francisco State and Berkeley and in New York in the last three weeks, ten high schools got closed by kids who say we don't wanna learn that crap. It ain't crap. Huh? History, that's a good course. Schools, Columbus discovered America. That's out of sight. There were people here. So what does that mean? How can you discover a country where there are people living here? Ho ho and you find out, well, discover means that a western white power conquers a non-white, non-western power. That's what discover meant. Oh, but the Indians didn't write the history books, and history, like Napoleon said, is a commonly held belief set upon, set of lies. When you're in power, you write the history books. You give the math courses. When I was in school, I learned to make ovals. Did you have that up here? These little circles. We were talking about that today; I'll never forget - first of all they tell you how to sit, like this, right, remember this? You can never get stoned in that position. They said if you don't do this, you'll always walk around this way, right? I never did that, and I don't walk around this way. I can't figure it out, the liars. They said we'll teach you how to make ovals, these little circles between these two lines, see, and you gotta do it with your whole arm, and you gotta keep doing this and doing this and doing this and doing this. I got a Master's Degree in this. Ovals. So what? Had to unlearn it. Unlearn it. When I met the liberals, I unlearned it damn well.

They own you. Try taking it. You know people don't believe that cops are good guys. Mayor Daley's a good guy, yea, how come their eight cops put up to balance us eight in Chicago - they put up eight cops - that's why I wear the shirt. That's why I wear it in Chicago. See, we're in empathy with those working men on the force. They're being put up as scapegoats. We offered them our legal aid. People saw that coming in; the whole world was watching in Chicago. They saw it on air, it was coming over the boob tube. Smash smash smash. Beatin' up the kids. We don't believe it. It's not true. And they're right, where they live, it's not true. We're going to Miami Beach, and we'll be away for a while and there's alot of violence in the streets. Will you keep an eye on our house? Oh yes. Thanks, Officer. And they see him on FBI, Mod Squad, and all the other shows. They're good guys. Well, they ain't good guys where I live. In my blocks there're twenty cops that patrol it. And you're a suspicious looking character, which is like most of us, suspicious lookin', they grab you and throw you up against the building and they search ya and they find some flowers in you pocket, you could do one to five years. We had a party like four months before we went to Chicago in Grand Central Station. I mean, like, eight thousand kids came. Midnight, to celebrate spring. We had balloons and singing and smokin' dope, huggin' and kissin'. I don't know if you've been in Grand Central Station, Huge, huge, lobby there, totally filled with people, an absolutely beautiful sight. Some kids climb up on the information counter in the middle and took the hands off the clock. Two hundred pigs came in a flying wedge. They learned that in Notre Dame, wham. One hundred fifty in the hospital. I got knocked unconscious. Busted ankle. Friend of mine, Ron Shay, came to my aid, see, gonna help out? Picked up, threw him through a glass window. They broke both his hands. See, for months, there was talkin' about this story, and people come and say, why did they take the hands off the clock? That's all they could think about. Ten f....' lousy bucks, hands on a clock. Ron Shay got one hand damaged forever. That's the way society is. Middle of Grand Central Station, about hands on a G.. d... clock. Did you see them standin' around there? I just noticed that for the first time. Here come the cops, well, OK, they're gonna bust up the crowd or somethin'. No. They're gonna guard this little thing. I don't understand what they're doin'. They did it at Central Park on Easter. We decided to have another be-in. Fifty thousand people came out. The cops came wading in, bustin' everything; I don't know, somebody took off their clothes or something. That's illegal. Beatin' the s... out of people. She was a liar. It was just Rochester cops. And then came on and arrested me and take me down to the station, you know, and get me in the lobby there and I said, hey, am I under arrest? They said, sit in the f..... seat. I said, hey, I'm not under arrest, I'm walkin' out of here, get in an egg crate, goin' back to New York. I know my rights under the Constitution. They swore - I thought that was hysterical - at my trial I was arrested for havin' a dirty four-letter word called hate on my forehead in Chicago. It was part of my security system. I didn't want my picture in the mass media, see, you..you had to swear at f..., right, or they won't take your picture. So I had that and I had a cross to keep away the vampires. Good for a kike to wear a cross, good disguise. So, the cop testified at my trial; the judge says, well, what did he have under his hat? Cop says, an obscenity, you honor. An obscenity. What was it? Well, I don't wanna say it. Hah. You should have heard him back in the station house. Well, I got cleared for that finally because they didn't have a, they said there were all these eyewitnesses, but they couldn't produce 'em, see, so it only offended the cop's morals and if you only offend a cop's morals, it ain't good enough. The May 3, 1969 issue of the "Guardian" on Page 23 contained an advertisement which stated that JERRY RUBIN and the subject would speak on sex, revolution, humanism, culture and drugs in an exclusive interview in the May - June issue of "The Humanist".

The May - June, 1969 issue of "The Humanist", self-described, is a journal of contemporary ethical concern that attempts to serve as a bridge between the theoretical, philosophical discussions and the practical applications of humanism to ethical and social problems and the lives of individuals, on pages three through eight contained an article entitled, "An Interview with Abbie Hoffman and Jerry Rubin" by PAUL KURTZ, who is listed as the editor of the publication.

During this interview the subject stated in part as follows:

"Well, when we went to Chicago during the Democratic Convention, we went to have a festival of life. That's a very positive thing. We're saying that nobody looks at the Democrats and says, 'That's decay, that's destruction; they aren't doing anything positive'. That's ridiculous. What we were doing was very positive. We are saying: 'We are the new society. How are we going to survive together?'

"We are for a change in the economic system because the economic system is based upon property.

"If we want to start there, we can start there. You can start at a lot of places because there are values that come out of that system: There's religion, the political system, and the information system.

"I think where it differs from Marx is that we don't see the working class at General Motors ready to have the uprising. Maybe it's coming, but it isn't there right now. And what we see is a very strange phenomenon: Where people who have a relatively good materialistic deal in life, like young people--their parents had it, lived through the depression, you know, and work, and all that--they're rejecting that; they're saying, no, we don't want that kind of life. Therefore, it becomes more existential than deterministic Marxist. It's more unexplainable--you don't know why, you just know why because that thing isn't working.

"It's wasted motion to come to a university and tell people that they ought to think. They've been told for 16 years that they ought to think, they ought to analyze, they ought to consider both sides.

"When I was young I had a course from Marcuse on Soviet Marxism.

"I can't understand his latest book. It's six dollars for 70 pages and I can't understand that at all. Men like Marcuse, McLuhan, Maslow--who's a great humanist; he had a lot to say about Freud and where he went off the track a little--I respect them, but I don't love them. They have good minds, and they see certain things.

"I respect them because they have a way of looking at society that might be correct and there may be something to learn from that. But dammit, I don't love them; they're not participating in the struggle, and they're not going to build a new society.

"If we just go around living our life, doing what we think is right, and working towards a humanist society, there's confrontation.

"Given our political system and our economic system, there had to be a Vietnam war. In fact there's always been. You know, the Philippines, they were our colonies and all that; I don't know when this country has had a good war.

"By the time this magazine comes out, we're also both going to be indicted by the Federal Government for the crime of crossing state lines with intent to riot. I have a couple trials under appeal--30 days in Washington for wearing a flag shirt, and 15 days for resisting arrest in Chicago, and a trial pending for Columbia University, and a lot of trials. The age of innocence is flying away. I have over 30 arrests--I used to get away with it a lot. Now, it's tough. They follow you around.

"They've shown for a number of years that they're going to allow the society to commit genocide on blacks, and gobble up the blacks, and they've shown for a number of years that they'll let the country gobble up other nations. Now the question is, are they going to let the country gobble up their kids? You see, we're bringing it right home. Here it is, America. We are your children. No matter what age we are, we all fly youth fare. You've got long hair, you fly youth fare, and you are young. You're a freak; you are young forever".

AMERICAN LABOR PARTY

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains the following concerning the American Labor Party:

"AMERICAN LABOR PARTY

- "1. 'For years, the Communists have put forth the greatest efforts to capture the entire American Labor Party throughout New York State. They succeeded in capturing the Manhattan and Brooklyn sections of the American Labor Party but outside of New York City they have been unable to win control.'
(Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 78.)
- "2. 'Communist dissimulation extends into the field of political parties forming political front organizations such as the * * * American Labor Party. The Communists are thus enabled to present their candidates for elective office under other than a straight Communist label.'
(Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, handbook for Americans, S. Doc. 117, April 23, 1956, p. 91.)"

On October 7, 1956, PETER HAWLEY, New York State Chairman, American Labor Party, publicly announced the American Labor Party State Committee unanimously approved a resolution dissolving the organization and ordering the liquidation of its assets.

~~SECRET~~1.BLACK PANTHER PARTY

According to its official newspaper, the Black Panther Party (BPP) was started during December, 1966, in Oakland, California, to organize black people so they can take control of the life, politics, and the destiny of the black community. It was organized by BOBBY GEORGE SEALE, BPP Chairman, and HUEY P. NEWTON, BPP Minister of Defense. NEWTON is presently serving a sentence of 2 to 15 years on a conviction of manslaughter in connection with the killing of an Oakland police officer.

The official newspaper, "The Black Panther", which further describes itself as the "Black Community News Service", states that the BPP advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics in its revolutionary program to end oppression of the black people. Residents of the black community are urged to arm themselves against the police who are consistently referred to in the publication as "pigs" who should be killed.

"The Black Panther" issue of September 7, 1968, contains an editorial by BPP Minister of Education, GEORGE MASON MURRAY, which ends with the following:

"Black men. Black people, colored persons of America, revolt everywhere! Arm yourselves. The only culture worth keeping is a revolutionary culture. Change. Freedom everywhere. Dynamite! Black Power. Use the gun. Kill the pigs everywhere."

Included in the introduction to an article appearing in the October 5, 1968, edition of "The Black Panther" is the statement, "... we will not dissent from American Government. We will overthrow it."

Issues of "The Black Panther" regularly contain quotations from the writings of Chairman MAO Tse-tung of the People's Republic of China and feature MAO's statement that "political power grows out of the barrel of a gun."

The national headquarters of the BPP is located at 3106 Shattuck Avenue, Berkeley, California. Branches have been established at various locations throughout the United States.

THE "GUARDIAN" FORMERLY KNOWN AS
"NATIONAL GUARDIAN" WEEKLY GUARDIAN
ASSOCIATES, INCORPORATED

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications", revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains the following concerning the "National Guardian":

"1. ... established by the American Labor Party in 1947 as a "progressive" weekly...it has manifested itself from the beginning as a virtual official propaganda arm of Soviet Russia."

The February 3, 1968 issue of the "National Guardian" announced that as of the issue of February 10, 1968, the "National Guardian" would henceforth be known as the "Guardian".

The February 10, 1968 issue of the "Guardian" is self-described as an "independent radical newsweekly" and is published by Weekly Guardian Associates, Incorporated. The "Guardian" lists its address as 197 East 4th Street, New York, New York.

The February 12, 1968, issue of the "New York Times" carried an article entitled, "Radical Editors say Their Job Is In Movement". This article stated that the first issue of the "Guardian" was dedicated by the paper's staff "To those heroic Liberation fighters who last week began a major offensive against American Imperialism in South Vietnam."

This article quoted one of the editors as saying that "Our job is to build a radical movement. To quote the Cuban revolutionaries, we are not only to write about it, but also to move along with it--we are movement people acting as journalists."

"The 'Guardian' takes a strong left position, but it is not identified with any organized group because it believes that an American left ideology is still in the making. One of its purposes is to break away from the cliches of the left ideology of the past."

"Liberation" Magazine (LM) is self-described as an independent monthly with offices at 5 Beekman Street, New York, New York. A "Statement of Ownership, Management, and Circulation" was published in the November, 1967 issue. It listed the Publisher and Editor of the magazine as DAVE DELLINGER. The circulation was given as 10,000.

The following comments appeared in a leaflet distributed by LM in May, 1968:

"Since its inception in 1956, LIBERATION has played an active and creative role in the growth of the new radicalism in the United States. From civil rights to black liberation, from 'ban the bomb' to the movement to end the war in Vietnam, LIBERATION has been vital. Its radical critique of American society and its emphasis on democratic and direct action against the inequalities and injustices of our present social structure have inspired radicals, young and old".

"In addition, LIBERATION will continue to carry articles and discussions written by and to community organizers, student and non-student activists, educators, economists, and social scientists - of interest to anybody concerned with building a radical and nonviolent Movement that will bring a fundamental change to the existing order".

7D [REDACTED] that during a speech in New York, New York, on May 10, 1963, DAVE DELLINGER identified himself as a pacifist. He stated it was necessary to abolish the cause of war, which was capitalism. He advocated a Communist society and said, "I am a Communist", but further stated he was not a Soviet type Communist.

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications", revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., contains the following concerning the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee:

"Emergency Civil Liberties Committee

"1. 'The Emergency Civil Liberties Committee is an organization with headquarters in New York, whose avowed purpose is to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities and discredit the FBI. * * *
The committee finds that the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, established in 1951, although representing itself as a non-Communist group, actually operates as a front for the Communist Party. It has repeatedly assisted, by means of funds and legal aid, Communists involved in Smith Act violations and similar legal proceedings. One of its chief activities has been and still is the dissemination of voluminous Communist propaganda material.'

'FRANK WILKINSON was called as a witness when he appeared in Atlanta as a representative of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee to propagandize against the Committee on Un-American Activities and to protest its hearings. In 1956 WILKINSON was identified as a Communist Party member by a former FBI undercover agent within the Party. (Committee on Un-American Activities, Annual Report for 1958, House Report 187, March 9, 1959, pp. 34 and 35.)

"2. (Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Handbook for Americans, S. Doc. 117, April 23, 1956, p. 91.)"

"The New York Times", a New York City daily newspaper, in its April 1, 1968, issue, page 13, contained an item captioned, "Draft Dissenters to Get More Help", which related that at a news conference held by the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (ECLC) on the previous day, it was announced that the organization was changing its name to the National Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (NECLC) "to reflect our determination to develop a vital national civil liberties organization in all 50 states as rapidly as possible."

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY (PLP)

The "New York Times" city edition Tuesday, April 20, 1965, Page 27, reported that a new party of "revolutionary socialism" was formally founded on April 18, 1965, under the name of the PLP, which had been known as the Progressive Labor Movement.

According to the article, "The Progressive Labor Movement was founded in 1962, by MILTON ROSEN and MORTIMER SCHEER after they were expelled from the Communist Party of the United States for assertedly following the Chinese Communist line."

b7D [REDACTED] that the PLP held its Second National Convention in New York City, May 31 to June 2, 1968, at which time the PLP reasserted its objective of the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism. This is to be accomplished through the Party's overall revolutionary strategy of raising the consciousness of the people and helping to provide ideological leadership in the working class struggle for state power.

[REDACTED] that at the Second National Convention, MILTON ROSEN was unanimously re-elected National Chairman of the PLP and LEVI LAUB, FRED JEROME, JARED ISRAEL, WILLIAM EPTON, JACOB ROSEN, JEFFREY GORDON and WALTER LINDER were elected as the National Committee to lead the PLP until the next convention.

The PLP publishes "Progressive Labor", a bimonthly magazine; "World Revolution", a quarterly periodical; and "Challenge-Desafio", a monthly newspaper.

The August, 1968, issue of "Challenge-Desafio" sets forth that "above all, this paper is dedicated to the fight for a new way of life-where the working men and women own and control their homes, factories, the police, courts, and the entire Government on every level".

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY 670

[REDACTED] that the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. From an initial ideological posture of "participatory democracy," the current line of the national leadership reveals an adherence to Marxism-Leninism. Michael Klonsky, National Secretary, in March, 1969, called for the building of a revolutionary Marxist-Leninist movement. The program of SDS has moved from involvement in civil rights struggles to an anti-Vietnam war position and finally to its present advocacy of an anti-imperialist line, linking up the oppressed peoples of Asia, Africa and Latin America with the black liberation movement in the United States. China, Vietnam and Cuba are regarded as countries which are leading the world-wide struggles against United States imperialism. On the other hand, SDS regards the Soviet Union as an imperialist power and does not support the policies of that country.

SDS maintains a National Office in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois. Its official paper "New Left Notes" reflects the line of the national leadership and program adopted at meetings of the National Council and National Interim Committee (NIC). Three national officers and a NIC of eleven members are elected each year during a June National Convention.

SDS Regional Offices and university and college chapters elect delegates to National Council meetings wherein program and ideology are debated, but each Region and chapter is autonomous in nature and is free to carry out independent policy and programs reflective of local conditions.
